

Miss Dorcas Anne Payne Entertains With One Of Season's Prettiest Teas

By OLIE P. LANSSEN.

ONE of the prettiest teas of the season, informal but charming in detail, is being given this afternoon at the Payne home on Montana street by Miss Dorcas Anne Payne, assisted by her mother, Mrs. D. M. Payne.

Room is the dainty decorative scheme, featured with a profusion of the garden's favorite blossoms at this season, sweet peas, ferns and potted plants add further to the pretty setting for the affair, and the afternoon sunlight is admitted, shading a golden glow about the appointments.

Two charming cousins of the hostess, Katherine Payne Harris and Nancy Payne, are receiving the cards of the guests and they, with the hostess and the members of the house party, form a picture in their dainty frocks of rainbow hues.

The tea table is dainty with cover of Madame, embroidered linen and centered with a silver basket of sweet peas. The candles in silver holders are pink, as are the confections and other appointments. During the hours at the tea service are Misses Frances Smith, Dorothy Leachman, Beatrice Biles and Dorothy Leachman, Miss Payne and her mother are receiving their guests in the reception room. SEBORRHEA A HAIR SCOURGE

Seborrhea is the scourge that kills the hair.

It propagates the dandruff bacilli and eventually causes baldness.

If your hair is falling out, it is fighting for its life.

Nature fights to supply new hair, but with seborrhea in the sebaceous glands each succeeding hair is weaker.

Baldness keeps coming closer and closer—unless FAMO is used.

FAMO destroys the dandruff bacilli. It cures all itching.

FAMO causes the growth of new, healthy hair.

It retards grayness—contains no alcohol. FAMO intensifies the natural color of the hair and adds a new lustre and sheen.

Every member of the family should use FAMO regularly.

Even where the scalp is healthy, FAMO should be used as it will keep seborrhea away.

Also, it will make the hair soft and fluffy. Its use is a daily habit you will enjoy.

FAMO comes in two sizes—a small size at 35 cents and a big bottle at $1. Your money will be returned if you are not satisfied.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a condition of the scalp. The sebaceous glands of the scalp. The sebaceous secretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.
